The Innovations faculty at Rushcliffe Sixth Form are looking to start a brand new course, for September 2018: A Level Textiles (Art and Design)

This will be a small class taught by experienced teachers, where you will learn all aspects of Textiles and build the foundations for a career in Design. You will be using lots of new technological equipment and producing outstanding pieces of textiles work.

This is a fantastic opportunity to study A Level Textiles in a vibrant and creative environment at a successful Sixth Form.

The Innovations faculty has links with Nottingham Trent University Design Department to support you to pursue a career in the fashion industry and many other areas.

Why not see if it is the right course for you?
